Corwin Announces the 2017 Deep Equity Institute

Los Angeles, CA—January 18, 2017—Corwin, the premier publisher of professional resources that equip PreK-12 educators with innovative tools to improve teaching and learning, is excited to invite education leaders, teachers, community members, parents, and change agents to the 2017 Deep Equity Institute. The Institute will be held at the Wyndham Boston Beacon Hill in Boston, MA from April 28 to 29, 2017.

Who should attend the Deep Equity Institute?

- Principals
- Assistant and associate principals
- Superintendents
- Assistant and associate superintendents
- Community liaisons
- Teachers and teacher leaders

Why should educators attend the Deep Equity Institute?

The Corwin Deep Equity Institute engages educators in the real work of school reform to create systemic change from the bottom up. Grounded in the real experiences of public school practitioners and students, Deep Equity builds the foundation for organizational growth, empowering participants to have authentic conversations, drive positive change, overcome equity barriers and become courageous leaders of cultural transformation. At this Institute, attendees will learn to:

- Build a climate of constructive collaboration
- Transcend the rhetoric of shame and blame
- Dismantle organizational barriers to equity and inclusion
- Connect cultural competence with student outcomes
- Implement action research and planning to achieve systemic change

Featured speakers Gary Howard, Debbie Zacarian, and Noma LeMoine will lead powerful sessions throughout the two-day conference. For the full list of guest speakers, visit the Institute Speakers page.

Registration for the 2017 Deep Equity Institute is $399 for individuals and $349 for each person in a group of three or more. Individuals may also register with the early bird price of $349 if registered by January 31, 2017. Registration is available at www.corwin.com/bostonDE.
