WHAT YOUR COLLEAGUES SAY

Student Voice

"This book speaks to a movement that many people talk about but few act upon, Student Voice. Quaglia and Corso have lived their professional careers listening to students and acting on what they have heard. Now they share what it takes for education to truly become student-centered."

—Raymond J. McNulty, Dean of the School of Education
Southern New Hampshire University

Teacher Voice

"Quaglia and Lande have produced a treasure trove of new and high leverage ideas. Teacher Voice contains two powerful messages. One is that teacher voice contains the seeds of widespread transformation of learning. The other main message, alas, is that teacher voice is vastly under-utilized— and teachers know it! This book is a call and guide to action to leverage a resource that is under our noses. Read it and act."

—Michael Fullan, Professor Emeritus
OISE, University of Toronto

Student Voice Introduction and Foundation:

Participants will be introduced to the importance and impact of Aspirations and Student Voice in schools and gain an understanding of the Aspirations Framework along with utilizing Student Voice for improving teaching and learning.

Self-Worth: Making Your Voice Matter and Be Heard

Self-Worth flourishes when students know they are valued members of the school community, have people in their lives they can trust and learn from, and believe they have the ability to achieve academically, personally, and socially. This workshop reviews the Guiding Principle of Self-Worth and the 3 Conditions that support this principle along with the importance of fostering Belonging, Heroes, and Sense of Accomplishment for all students.

Cultivating Engagement and Letting the Leader in You Emerge

Engagement takes root when students are deeply involved in the learning process by showing enthusiasm and desire to learn new things, and willingness to take positive, healthy steps toward the future. Participants of this workshop will be introduced to the Guiding Principle of Engagement and through a series of high-energy exercises, they will learn the importance of fostering Fun & Excitement, Curiosity & Creativity, and Spirit of Adventure for all students.

Purpose: The Art of Innovation and Enterprise; Turning Dreams into Reality

Purpose in school is fostered when students take responsibility for who and what they want to become, both by looking forward to professional careers as well as acting in the present as confident, responsible members of their communities. Participants in this workshop will be introduced to the Guiding Principle of Purpose and the two Conditions that support this Principle. They will also learn the importance of fostering Leadership and Responsibility and Confidence to Take Action for all students, plus how to incorporate student voice and the skills of emergent leadership into a creative, practical approach for improving the teaching and learning environment.
