

Frequently Asked Questions

What is Read2Earn?

Read2Earn is a Corwin program that allows you to earn graduate credit from California Lutheran University when you read any Corwin book and successfully complete a final assignment.

You may choose any Corwin book to read and analyze in your final assignment.

An evaluator from California Lutheran University will review and grade your final assignment; a passing grade will earn you one graduate credit to apply toward your professional development goals.

How much does it cost?

The cost of tuition is $199. This does not include the Corwin book you must read in order to complete your final assignment.

How many credits can I receive?

You will earn one credit for each Corwin book you read and submit an assignment for. You can enroll and complete Read2Earn up to five times, for a maximum total of five graduate credits. You may sign up for multiple courses at once or spread out your registrations.

Will my state or district accept credit from California Lutheran University?

We advise you to check with your employer or certifying agency about whether these graduate credits will be accepted. Most systems accept graduate units from accredited institutions, and California Lutheran University's Graduate School of Education is a regionally accredited institution.

California Lutheran University is regionally accredited by The Western Association of Schools and Colleges Senior College and University Commission \(WSCUC\), one of six regional accrediting agencies in the United States that accredit public and private higher education institutions.

Please visit our website to download the syllabus, final assignment, and all other information needed for pre-approval.

Please contact support@corwin.com if you need any additional information to submit to your employer or certifying agency for pre-approval.

How long do I have to submit my final assignment?

You have three months from the time you register for Read2Earn to complete and submit your final assignment for grading. Assignments will be graded within two weeks of submitting your assignment.

How do I request a transcript from California Lutheran University?

If you need an official transcript from CLU visit:

<https://www.callutheran.edu/students/register/transcripts.html>

If you are a first time user it will be necessary for you to create an ordering account which will be used for this and all subsequent orders.

In order to successfully create an account, please be prepared with the date you started the course, the date you completed the course, your social security number, and your date of birth.

You will need to indicate whether or not you are requesting immediate processing and if you are sending the transcript to yourself or to a third party. You will also need to indicate if you are requesting the transcript to be sent electronically or through the postal service.

Transcripts requested with regular processing will take three to five working days to be processed. Requests with rush processing will be processed within 1 working day.

Fees: $5.00 per transcript $3.00 processing fee $10.00 rush fee per transcript. To complete the order, you will need to make payment by using a major credit card.

What is your refund policy?

You may request a refund up to 14 days after you pay and register for a Read2Earn course. We will fully refund your payment and remove you from the course within this time period only.
