Corwin Announces the Women in Leadership Conference

LOS ANGELES, CA—Corwin, the premier publisher of professional resources that equip PreK-12 educators with innovative tools to improve teaching and learning, is excited to invite women in leadership, aspiring leaders, and advocates to the 2016 Women in Leadership Conference. The conference will be held at The Westin New Orleans Canal Place, New Orleans, Louisiana from November 16 to 18, 2016.

Who should attend the Women in Leadership Conference?

- Superintendents
- Assistant and associate superintendents
- Principals
- Assistant and associate principals
- Teachers and teacher leaders

Why should educators attend the Women in Leadership Conference?

- Learn to build leadership skills—as a team member, leader, supervisor, facilitator, or consultant—from peers and expert practitioners
- Establish a network of colleagues from around the world interested in changing the landscape of leadership
- Leave with practical knowledge that can be used immediately in your work with your team, school, district, or organization
- Explore gender issues and opportunities in educational leadership

With over 20 sessions and expert speakers, keynotes will be led by Jennifer Abrams, Barbara McAfee, and Rosalind Wiseman (author of Queen Bees and Wannabes, which inspired the movie Mean Girls). Furthermore, Peter Dewitt will be kicking off the event with a pre-conference workshop.

Registration for the 2016 Women in Leadership Conference is $599 for individuals and $569 for each person in a group of three or more and is available at www.corwin.com/wil.
